

International Dial Out rates | Canada Toll Free Conference Calls

Customers may schedule operator-assisted dial out to conference participants in those countries from which toll free access is unavailable. The conference leader must contact Customer Service at least one hour prior to the scheduled conference call to give one of our operators the name(s) and international phone number(s) of those participants.

It is not necessary to contact Customer Service when you have participants who will be joining your conference call from any of the countries in which we offer international toll free access numbers. This is only required when you choose to have an operator "dial out" to an international participant(s),
